Deed, made December 6, 1899, by Amelia M. Schencklein and C. Ed Schencklein and others, to city of Wheeling; consideration $250 04; transfers part of a lot on the Island.
A marriage license was issued to Phares R. Tuttle, twenty-eight, and Ora J. Wells, twenty-three, of Wheeling.

AT LEAST TWO

Towns Are Coming to Wheeling En
Massé for "Dewey Day."

WELLSBURG AND MOUNDSVILLE

Are Reported to be Making Preparations for the Greatest "Trek" in Their History—Every Organization in Wellsburg, With One Exception, Will be Represented in the Parade.

At least two towns will come to Wheeling en masse on "Dewey Day," and no doubt nearly all of Wheeling's neighbors will "trek" in large numbers to Stogietown. Wellsburg, it is said, will be practically depopulated. Every organization in the town, with but one exception, it is claimed, has accepted or will accept the invitation to take part in the "Dewey Day" parade, including the National Guard company, Knights of Pythias, Knights of St. John, Odd Fellows, glassworkers' union, etc. The exception is the Masonic bodies, which are not allowed to come out under their laws. Company C, of the National Guard, will come down headed by its own band.

Ex-Representative Frank W. Legge, of McMechen, was in town yesterday afternoon, and called on Chairman Garvin, of the general committee. He gave assurances that Moundsville, McMechen and Benwood would unite in bringing up a Marshall county division that would include nearly everything that can walk, hobble or crawl. The old soldiers, Spanish-American war veterans, Knights of Pythias, Sons of Veterans and others were mentioned as the organizations that would contribute to the crowd.

Many additional acceptances were received yesterday by Chairman Garvin, and the success of the street demonstration is now well assured.

CALDWELL NEEDED WATCHING.

At Least the Aetna-Standard Employes Held That Opinion.

Yesterday morning, Mr. B. M. Caldwell, late general manager of the Aetna-Standard mill, was remembered in a very pleasing and unexpected manner by the employes of that mill. While Mr. Caldwell was at his home in Leathertown, he received a telephone message, stating that he was wanted at the Bridgeport office immediately. He arrived at the office at 10 o'clock and was met by Mr. S. T. Williams, manager of the Mingo plant, who escorted him to a second floor room where, in a neat speech on behalf of the workmen of the mill, he presented Mr. Caldwell with a gold watch, valued at $25. After a moment's hesitancy, Mr. Caldwell in a few well selected words accepted the token from the men by whom he was held in such high esteem. The affair was a very pleasant one throughout, and one which will long be remembered by Mr. Caldwell and the donors.

BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in, and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Grand to-night—"Have You Seen Smith?"

Clyde Barnes, of Barnesville, O., was calling on friends on the Island yesterday.

Council meets this evening in special session for the transaction of general business, on call of Councilmen Maurer, Welsgerber and Knoke.

Mr. George L. Oliver and Miss Louise Ferrell were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. C. B. Graham, at the North Street M. E. church parsonage.

The revival meetings at the North Street M. E. church continue with great interest and large attendance. Last night there were six accessions to the church membership. Meetings will be held this afternoon and to-night.

Last evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Phares R. Tuttle and Miss Ora J. Wells were married at the home of the bride's parents, on the Mt. Wood road, by Rev. C. B. Graham, of the North Street M. E. church. The attendants were Mr. Jacob A. Keller and Miss Ida Miller.

Last evening at 5:30 o'clock, a still alarm called the Eleventh street chemical to John S. Welty's grocery, on Market street, Market square, where an electric light wire had set fire to the floor under several barrels of oil. The blaze was extinguished with small loss. Mr. Welty's gratitude for the timely services of the fire ladders took the form of a box of cigars, which the boys appreciated.

A Pole's Brutal Act.

John Mekeskey, of the Sixth ward, a Pole, was arrested last night by Officer Lawson, for disorderly conduct. Mekeskey, who was drunk, chased his wife, with their three weeks' old child, out of the house and refused to allow them to return. The mother and child were crying out on the street and much sympathy was aroused in their behalf. Mekeskey didn't resist arrest, but he objected to giving over the keys of his house. Drink had made him temporarily insane.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

In the Wake of The Stock Takers.

In getting in shape for the stock takers we have discovered that our zeal to have ample quantities and varieties has led us into too heavy purchases in some directions. These mistakes we shall remedy by a SPECIAL SALE, that will render most supreme advantage, by marking prices on these goods that will sweep them out in a rush. It is a sale of Hub merchandise, which means a great deal—means that it's strictly and wholly of reliable qualities—means that it is all fresh and new, up-to-date—means that the sacrifice is just as great as it purports to be—means that the policy of a brand new stock with each season is no fallacy, but is to be a fact, evidenced by these little short of startling reductions, exceding in importance and interest any happenings for the present season. We lose in such causes willingly. You may take during this week:

Any of our Covert Overcoats at three-quarters of their former plainly marked price.
Any of our Chinchilla Overcoats at three-quarters of their former plainly marked price.
Any of our Montnac Overcoats at three-quarters of their former plainly marked price.
Any of our Rough Faced Overcoats at three quarters of their former plainly marked price.

Over 500 Men's Suits in almost every make of cloth and every stylish shade at a uniform price cut of 25 per cent. Greatest of all will be our great Trousers Sale. Take your choice of any pair in stock (with exception of Black, Gray, Worsted and Jeans Pants) at 25 per cent discount from our former low prices.

Hundreds of Boys' Two Piece Suits. Hundreds of Boys' Vestee Suits. Hundreds of Boys' Blouse Suits. Hundreds of Boys' Reefers.

Hundreds of Boys' Top Coats, the choicest and best ever shown, at a discount of 25 per cent.

Don't delay; come as early in the week as possible so as to secure the best choice of the greatest of all offerings. Should you desire your money back for anything you buy during this sale, it's yours for the asking.
